Postage and packing at cost to be added to each order sent by mail.

1. Every request for an image must be made in writing, stating:
  - Particulars of the image required. If particulars are not known, a search fee may be charged in addition to the other charges.
  - The use to which the image is to be put. If the requestor is acting on behalf of another party, the identity of the other party must be disclosed and (if appropriate) a different scale of charges may be applied.
2. No image supplied may be further reproduced without a fresh request for use and (if agreed to) payment of the relevant charges.
3. The Society is to be clearly identified by its full name as (i) the source of the image and (ii) the copyright owner. If more than one image is used in the same publication, the abbreviation “NZRLS” may be added after the Society’s full name at the first illustration and subsequent illustrations may be acknowledged by the initials “NZRLS” only. The copyright symbol is to be shown at every acknowledgement.
4. Under no circumstances will negatives be supplied.
